Respectful Workplace

FOR FEDERALLY REGULATED ORGANIZATIONS

2 HOUR VIRTUAL SESSION
9:00 AM – 11:00 AM CST

This session will provide participants with information, resources, and strategies that support the creation and sustainment of a respectful workplace. Federal legislation and its impact on policies and practices for organizations in this jurisdiction will be covered. Approaches for effectively addressing complaints (formal and informal) to support a respectful workplace culture will also be explored.

Key topics include:

- Characteristics of a respectful workplace
- Federal legislative requirements (Human Rights, Health & Safety, Canada Labour Code)
- Employer and employee responsibilities
- Identify harassing, discriminatory, and violent behaviours as they happen
- How to address harassment, discrimination, and violence in the workplace

Training is ideal for:
Business owners, managers, supervisors, people leaders, employees

Session dates:
Tuesdays morning – February 8, March 8, April 5, and May 10

Register online at peoplefirsthr.com

For more information
info@peoplefirsthr.com
204.940.3900

PEOPLE FIRST
HR SERVICES
A division of People Corporation