

Principles of HR for Managers

Full Day Workshop $549

This session supports supervisors and managers that do not have an HR background or who are new to managing others by providing them with a primer of employer requirements and the role of managers in creating a strong and healthy workplace culture.

Themes include:

- Defining HR management: role of supervisors and managers
- Best practices in respectful workplace including policy
- Human Rights Legislation (protected grounds)
- Basics of employment standards and where to find the right information
- Importance of HR policy and procedures in setting the tone for success
- Culture and productivity